BiCon 2008

BiCon is the UK's only national conference and convention on bisexuality. This year it returns to Leicester at the Oadby Campus of the University of Leicester from 28th-30th August 2008.

Meet other bisexual and bi-friendly people for a weekend of workshops, discussions, and evening entertainments, games, DJs and bars.

BiCon is a friendly and accessible space where bisexuality is the norm and the sense of an open and accepting community is strong. We welcome bisexuals, their friends, partners and allies.
